I can honestly say that I am not totally sold on Exile by Rebecca Lim. This maybe in part because I've never read the previous book Mercy, when I started Exile I was unaware that there was even another book that started the series. In my past experience of accidently reading books out of order I've never been as lost as I was reading Exile.

I personally really liked 'Mercy' by Rebecca Lim. It was something different to what I was expecting. Mercy was someone that I really appreciated as a character, that actually seemed like a real person (or there lack of) and didn't crap on like most of them do. After a super good ending, I had to read the 'Exile'. It was pretty good as well.

Muse (Mercy, #3) by Rebecca Lim

Mercy by Rebecca Lim is set in the fictional town of Paradise. Rebecca's an Aussie author and while the book does have a bit of an Aussie feel to it, it's never acknowledged as being the country where the book is set. Mercy is a fallen angel. She's been exiled from heaven due to an incident but she can't remember what happened.
