Re: Kioti backhoe subframe and mounts in reality part #3 might be compatible with the Ford hoe with some slight modifications. The front attachment point will require some additional work as I think part number 1 goes in the same spot as the rear subframe mount for the front mount blower, but I think it can be overcome with a little extra fab work.

In your case I would highly recommend going to the dealer and having a Kioti brand backhoe. Like others have said, the will need to install rear hydraulics (I strongly agree with Everhard, get the two set setup), a subframe and then the backhoe. Woods make great equipment but I would always go with O.E. for the loader and backhoe.
