Slabscape:

I definitely recommend reading the first book in the series of Slabscape: Dammit by S. Spencer Baker before reading the second one. I had trouble at first understanding the cultural references and was dearly hoping to find a glossary in the back of the back of the book. After finally getting my bearings, it turned into a rather enjoyable read.

I am awaiting Slabscape: Dammit, unlike the Fate of the Jedi sequels for which I care nothing. The sci-fi elements are counter balanced with sense of realism, of the world and the reaction of the characters to it. It also openly mocks itself, which helps new sci-fi readers a lot.
