S. D. Perry, Resident Evil: Underworld (Pocket, 1999) Perry's fourth installment in the Resident Evil series is another original, rather than being a novelization of one of the video games in the series; I find myself liking the novelizations a bit more, now that I've read two of each. Maybe it's because I recognize the limitations imposed on a novelization by the underlying game, while the originals should have more room to spread out.
